

Technip North America Region
Acknowledgement of Qualification

Supplier Name:	Tube Developments Limited
Date Qualification Completed:	22 nd August 2012
Date Qualification Expires:	22 nd August 2015
Type of Equipment/Service Qualified:	Steel Stockist
Office/Facility Location Qualified:	G65 9BN Scotland UK
Additional Locations Covered under this Qualification:

This qualification is valid for three years from the date of issuance and only for the specified equipment/service as well as location(s) described above.

Please note that this qualification period is subject to continued positive performance reviews and assessments conducted by the project teams in accordance to Technip's policies and procedures. Furthermore, this qualification signifies that the named supplier above has been deemed as qualified to perform/provide the described equipment/service for projects located within Technip's North America Region.

Technip is committed to the highest standards of business ethics, corporate compliance and workplace safety. It is our policy to contract with Suppliers that have similar ethical standards and business conduct, which are in compliance with all applicable laws of the United States and the countries in which they do business. Our Ethics Charter, which is located at www.technip.com, defines the Group's Objectives in this area and the corresponding rules of good conduct. We would greatly appreciate the dissemination of our Ethics Charter to those in your company who have contact with employees and/or representatives of Technip.

In closing, we understand and appreciate your effort to become an supplier of Technip and we look forward to the possibility of working with you in the future.

Sincerely,

Sigrunn Brown
Manager of Supplier Qualification